ONLINE APPLICATION GUIDANCE

- To Access the online site, first request a Single Sign On (SSO) account <https://apps.usuhs.edu/account-registration/>
 - If you receive an error message – e-mail sakaihelp@usuhs.edu.
- Fellows in GME training may apply for Instructor appointments, and staff physicians for Assistant Professor.
- Staff physicians with prior faculty appointments from other institutions should discuss their faculty appointment with their department first.
- To Apply, go to <https://workflow.usuhs.edu/>
- For the latest one-pager instructional document https://www.usuhs.edu/sites/default/files/media/medschool/doc/assistant_professor_and_instructor_online_appointing_system.docx

Faculty Appointment Tidbit – For those graduating from residency in June, if you are doing a fellowship starting in July and will be teaching USU students, you can be appointed as an “Instructor” during your fellowship.

Are you moving or have you moved? It is PCS season over the next several months. When you move or change e-mails, or home address, update Human Resources (CHR) by sending a quick e-mail to facultyupdate@usuhs.edu

Faculty Development Self-Service Site

Do you want to see how close you are to a certificate? At the Self-Service Site <http://www.lrc.usuhs.edu/facdev> you can track credits, sign up for classes, download handouts from classes you attended, see past newsletters, and more.

First time users will need to “Apply for an Account”. Since the Faculty Development Certificate Program is inclusive of all MHS faculty, the site requires a separate registration from the USU-SSO. But after logging-on with your password, you can link your SSO or CAC under “My Account” for easier future logon.

For any questions, email thomas.mcfate.ctr@usuhs.edu.

Faculty Development Certificate Recipients

Each year since the certificate program expanded in 2014, a growing number of National Faculty have accumulated enough hours to earn certificates. In 2018, a total of 100 certificates were awarded! It is impressive to see how faculty have been continually engaged in learning about education, and are collaborating with each other to work together as educators.

*Don't forget to place these certificates on your CV under "Additional Certifications" or "Additional Qualifications"

Leadership Announcements

USU has had several new Associate Deans and Department Chairs. Congratulation to each of those selected!

CDR Patcho Santiago will be the new Associate Dean for Diversity and Inclusion. Patcho is currently the Psychiatry Residency Program Director at Walter Reed Military Medical Center. CDR Santiago has been deployed several times after graduating from residency at National Naval Medical Center. He has held several educational leadership positions in addition to sitting on many national committees. He will be coming to the University this summer.

Col(S) Barton Staat was selected, and has already begun, as the new Department Chair of Obstetrics and Gynecology. Bart is a perinatologist, trained at Wright-Patterson AFB and University of Colorado, and has been at the Uniformed Services University for several years. At USU, he was the Vice-Chair for Patient Safety & Quality. He continues to sit on many ACOG National Committees, as well as group to develop DoD/VA Guidelines.

COL James Mancuso was selected to be the new Department Chair of Preventive Medicine and Biostatistics. Jamie is board certified in both Preventive Medicine and Occupational Medicine. He is a USU grad, class of '98, and followed with his residency in Preventive Medicine at Walter Reed Army Institute of Research. He has had several leadership positions, is well known nationally for his research, and has advised the Surgeon General. He will be joining USU in the summer.

CDR Arlene Hudson was selected, and has already begun, as the new Department Chair of Anesthesiology. Arlene is a USU grad, class of '02, who trained as a cardiothoracic anesthesiologist in the National Capital Consortium. She has had several deployments since her graduation, and numerous research projects at USU. She has also chaired several large committees, and led the department Maintenance of Certification Training for military anesthesiologists around the globe.

Gold Humanism Award Inductees 2019

The Gold Humanism Honor Society of the Arnold P. Gold Foundation was founded in 2002 to recognize those physicians, who consistently demonstrate empathy and compassion to patients despite busy schedules, fatigue, and multiple competing interests in the healthcare system. USUHS has had a Gold Humanism Chapter for 3 years. Each year, core clerkship students vote on those residents and faculty to be inducted into the USUHS chapter. These residents and faculty are consummate role models for respecting all patients and demonstrating compassion for all. This year's inductees are:

- Dr. Jennifer Chang, USUHS, Dept of Family Medicine
- Dr. Casey Flanagan, WRNMMC, Dept of Medicine (Cardiology)
- Dr. Christopher Foster, USUHS, Dept of Pediatrics
- Dr. Michael Wagner, NMCPortsmouth, Dept of Medicine (Neurology)
- Dr. Tim Gregory, Madigan AMC, Neurology Resident
- Dr. Matthew Nelson, WRNMMC, Internal Medicine Resident
- Dr. Brooke Patti, Tripler AMC, General Surgery Resident
- Dr. Kyle Gray, WRNMMC, Psychiatry Resident

Get ready! The Dean's Teaching Award nominations will be coming soon! Any national faculty educating USU students can be nominated. Watch for instructions in the next newsletter.
